The BCHOA meeting was called to order, there being no new nominations for board member, the current member up for election, Jeb Parr, was reelected unanimously. Officers were asked to continue in place as no new owner shows interest in being an officer.

The budget that had been approved by the board was confirmed by all owners attending the meeting.

There was continued conversations about Smoking in the building and Budget Projects.

There was nothing further on the agenda meeting closed and the attendees had a pot luck get together.
